THE CENTRAL'S FATE.

VOL. XXIII.

Judge Speer Appoints General Alexander

STOCKHOLDERS ARE GREATLY EXCITED.

They bear That Bankruptcy and Ruin Await the Road.

IS IT A SCHEME TO WRECKP

The Olcott Committee's Scheme Peters Out and Insiders Are Caught Long on Stocks.

The state's oldest railway, the Central Railread and Banking Company of Georgia, is in the hands of a receiver.

General E. Porter Alexander, ex-president of the Central, was appointed late Thursday night by Judge Emory Speer, of the United States court, at Macon.
R. M. Clark, of Charleston, was the petitioner, and his bill was filed by Dan Rountree, of Atlanta, and a Mr. Perry, of the Charleston

The bill attacks the Georgia Pacific's lease of the Central, recites some of the inside history of the company, declares that the interests of the minority stockholders are endangered by a proposed absorption of the property by another corporation, and asks the court to protect the property from the designing Richmond and West Point Warehouse and Terminal Company.

This is a move to break the lease. Suspicion rests on both the minority and the majority stockholders. The general impression, how-ever, is that the Richmond Terminal itself is the real party seeking the receivership. Two reasons are assigned by those informed on the situation. One is that the Wall street operators who now control the Terminal are sick of the 7 per cent lease to the Geergia Pacific. The other is that they are not so anxious to break the lease as to wreck the Central and wipe out the heavy capitalizations and fixes charges.

General Alexander was elected president of the Central in January, 1887, when the Calhouns and H. B. Hollins secured control of the property. Prior to that Captain W. G. Raoul and a directory of Georgians controlled the

In the days of President Wadley the stock went up and down and the system expanded.

The Central was a Georgia institution pure and simple. Its stock was held in small blocks, owned all over the state. In 1886 the control of the company was acquired by a northern syndicate, stock went up from 69 to 135, and the dividends increased from 4 per cent to 8

Last June the Central was leased to the Georgia Pacific. The Terminal controlled both roads. Since then there have been many predictions of a receivership and threats to break the lease.

The die is cast. The Central's stock and bonded indebtedness stands about thus: Savannah and Atlantic, first mortgage. 250,000

The Proceedings in Macon. Macon, Ga., March 4 .- (Special.) - The Central Railroad and Banking gia, with all its assets and entire property, passed into the hands of a receiver at 10 o'clock last night, when Judge Emory Speer, of the federal court, signed an order appointing General E. P. Alexander temporary receiver.

It is an attack on the Terminal system that will decide the fate of that great octopus. The bill was signed last night. On yesterday, Mr. D. W. Rountree, a member of the Atlanta bar, and Mr. Perry, a member of the Charleston bar, presented to Judge Speer at chambers a bill attacking the lease of the Central's properties to the Georgia Pacific and Richmond and Danville systems.

The bill is quite lengthy, and purports to give a detailed history of all the transactions connected with this important matter. At that time Judge Speer signed an order ap-pointing General E. P. Alexander temporary receiver of the entire property and assets of the Central Railroad and Banking Company of Georgia.

In case General Alexander should fail or refuse to act. Colonel W. W. Gordon, of Savannah, was made receiver in his stead. The receiver was directed to carry on the business of the railroad properties in the usual manner, without making any changes in the methods of accounting and bookkeeping until otherwise directed. In the meantime the defendants, the Central Railroad and Banking Company of Georgia, the Richmond and Danville Railroad Company, the Richmond and West Point Terminal Company, and the Georgia Pacific Railway Company, web enjoined from encumbering the properties of the Cen-tral Railroad and Banking Company, or from disposing of, or altering, the securities and assets of the same, and the receiver is directed to be very careful to preserve the legal status of all the properties.

The plaintiff in the bill is understood to be a holder of a large block of stock, and is a resident of Charleston, S. C., and has held the stock for a great many years. The averments of the bill briefly are: That the purchase by the Georgia Pacific Company, or the Richmond and West Point Terminal Company, of forty thousand shares of stock of the Central Railroad and Banking Company for the purpose of controlling the policy of the same, was a plain violation of paragraph 4, section 2, article 4, of the constitution of the state, adopted in the year 1887, which is as follows: The general assembly shall have no power to authorize any corporation of this state or else where, or to make any contract or agreement whatever with any such corporation, which may have the effect, or be intended to have the effect, to encourage monopoly; and all such contracts and agreements shall be illegal and void.

Plaintiffs insist, therefore, that the contracts by which the Terminal company got control of the stock was void, and that they took no title to the same. This being true, they insist that the 40,000 shares of stock which they hold are illegally held, and that the voting power of said shares of stock was illegally exercised, both in making the lease of the Central Railroad and Banking Company and in the election of the present board of directors. The bill further charges that any desire whatever to wreek the and Banking Company, the defendants are conspiring and designing to place a debt of $500,000,000 on the property—what is known as the Olcott scheme—a debt far in excess of the earning capacity of the properties, and which it can never pay. The plaintiff did not learn of this scheme until after the last meeting of the stockholders had adjourned, and indeed it is a recent existence.

It is charged that the present board of directors are the creatures of the West Point Terminal Company and are elected by the llegal exercise of the voting power of the stock, which said Terminal company controls, and that the plaintiff has no means of getting the board of directors assembled so that they may ask co-operative action to correct the wrongs complained of, and the next meeting of stockholders where the question could be raised will not convene until next year. In the interval the properties will be rained by the carrying out of the said Olcott scheme, which the bill charges, can have no effect whatever, save to wreck all the interests of the stockholders. The plaintiffs insist, therefore, that they have no remedy save by an appeal to a court of equity to enjoin the threatened injury, and to set aside the illegal transfers of stock and leases, which made it possible.

The prayers of the bill are for subpenas against the defendant corporations, and against all their directors; that they be enjoined from carrying out the agreements which tend to destrey competition and create monopoly; that the Ocoti scheme of reorganization be also enjoined; that the lease shall be declared inlegal, null and void, and that the properties of the Central Railroad and Banking Company shall be restored to a management created by the legal votes of the stockholders, in accordance with the charter; that all stockholders who desire to do so may be permitted to come in and bo made parties plaintiff to the bill, and a prayer also for general relief.

After the order was granted Mr. Rountree, it is learned, took the 11 o'clock train for Savannah last night, and today about noon General Alexander telegraphed Judge Speer his acceptance of the appointment as temporary receiver.

AS TOLD FROM SAVANNAH.

How the News of the Receivership Was Received in the Forest City. Savannah, Ga., March 4 .- (Special.) - Today

the bolt fell. The Central railroad is now in the hands of General Alexander as temporary receiver. He will continue to act in this capacity until March 14th, when the hearing of the application for the appointment of a permanent re-ceiver will be heard in the United States curcuit court at Macon before Judge Emory

General E. P. Alexander, president of the Central Railroad and Banking Company of Georgia, was sitting in his cozy office at the bank shortly before 2 o'clock this afternoon glancing over some official documents, when some one rapped at the door. "Come in," called the general. The door opened and Lawyer Daniel W. Rountree, of Atlanta, with smile on his face and a legal-looking paper in his hand, entered. The Central president kept on reading until the lawyer had reached his side.

"Yesterday afternoon I appeared in the United States court at Macon as the representative of a complaint in a suit affecting the Central railroad somewhat," said Mr. Roun-tree lightly. "I was successful and now come to present this paper to you," and he handed the Central's president the document. General Alexander turned sideways and read it. He read deliberately, as if he was weighing each word. At the end he paused a minu:e as if in deep thought.

"And you say that Judge Speer instructed you to deliver this paper to me?" he finally asked. "I am appointed temporary receiver of this ompany, it seems?" "You are if you see fit to accept." "Well, I accept the appointment," said.

General Alexander. The general did not give the slightest evidence of surprise, and yet, up to the second when he read of his appointment, he had not the slightest intimation of the contents of the

The long-expected blow predicted in The Constitution had failen, and the first steps to break the lease of the Central railroad to the Richmond and Danville, through the Georgia Pacific, had been successful. In a little while The Evening News had carried the news to all parts of the city.

Stockholders Excited.

Great excitement prevailed, and everything else was lost sight of in the discussion of the ction of the court and its possible results. Stockholders were intensely worked up, and predictions of ruin to their interests were reely uttered. Many seemed to look upon tter as part of another scheme on the part of the majority stockholders to depreciate the value of the stock by creating a panic among the minority holders.

Comforted by the Counselor

Mr. Rountree was prompt to deny this. 'The filing of this bill," said he, "is the best thing that could have happened for the stockolders, and there is no reason for them to be panic stricken or to think less of their stock.' The main purpose of the bill is for the court through its receiver to hold the property and preserve it from any unwarranted acts of a board of directors elected by the holders of the 40,000 shares of stock, until the next annual meeting of the holders legally qualified to vote to-wit, the present minority stockholders, when the said minority stockholders will elect a board of directors in sympathy with them and having their best interest in view. Then the court will tutn over the entire assets and property to such board of directors for their future control and management. "Mrs. Clark," he continued in answer to a estion from me, "is a wealthy woman of Charleston, who has large ho'dings in Georgia securities, notably a large amount of bonds in the Marietta and North Georgia and securities of the Central Railroad and Banking Company. Her affairs are managed by my associate in this case, Mr. J. Lamb Perry, of Charleston. This suit is the result of investigations made by Mr. Perry, and is not inspired by any other person, or corporation whatever, no matter what other persons may say. It is instituted for the sole purpose of protecting our clients' property, that is, her Central railroad shares, which were bought as an investment and not for speculative purposes.

"Yes, if we succeed, the Olcott committee's plan of reorganization will be, we believe, knocked skyhigh, for the reason that it depends so largely on the securities of the Cen-tral railroad system for its successful carrying out. Our client and ourselves have not any intention in the slighest or having control, in this illegal manner, of a Central road, or, speaking in common parlance, majority of the stock of the Central Railroad to force it through bankruptcy. Nothing is farther from our thoughts. We have simply anticipated somewhat a step contemplated by many others. I know of my personal knowledge of as many as a dozon prominent lawyers in different parts of the state who have investigated most thoroughly the questions connected with the lease, and have been preparing bills similar to the one I have filed and having exactly the same purpose in view, that is, the protection of the minerity stockholders. Among these lawyers are two Savannahlans who are recognized as the peers of any lawyers who are recognized as the peers of any lawyers in the south. One of them, I understand, would have filed a bill like ours within a few man's a manner what would have filed a bill like ours within a few days."

Mr. Rountree declined to say who this lawyer was, but from other sources it was learned that it is probably Peter Meldrim or ex-Judge Pratt Adams. It was also fearned elsowhere that but a few days ago a Savannah stockholder went to President Alexander and requested him to file a bill of this character to protect the minority stockholders.

"We had no doubt when we filed our bill," continued Mr. Rountree, "that our request for continued Mr. Rountree, "that our request for the appointment of a temporary receiver would be granted. We consider our case ab-solutely invulnerable and have not the slight-est doubt that on March 14th Judge Speer will appoint a permanent receiver. We believe that Judge Speer's decisions in the case of appoint a permanent receiver. We believe that Judge Speer's decisions in the case of Langdon et al. versus Branch et al. which was, as you will doubtless remember, a suit against the Savannah and Dublin and the Central, and in the recent onse of Hamilton & Bishop versus the East Georgia and Florida and the Savannah, Florida and Western he fully decides all the points at items in this fully decides all the points at issue in this case in our favor. Messrs. Charlton & Mackall, the Savannah lawyers, who won these case, at the time pointed out, I believe, in The Constitution, that under these decisions the Central railroad lease could not thank it on offer were needed. cisions the Central railroad lease could not stand if an effort were made to break it in the United States court. Even if, under constitutional provisions, it could not be annulled, it could be under the common law, as Judge Speer so ably pointed out. The United States supreme court, in the case of the Central Trait Company versus the Pullman Palace Car Company, which can be found on page sixty-two of the one hundred and thirty-ninth volume of reports, sustained Judge Speer's decision in every vital point. The ablest lawyers in Georgia are agreed that under these decisions it is within the power of the minority stockholders to break the lease at any time they may see fit. This is a purely bonafide suit to bring about this setting aside of the lease which we believe to be inimical to public interests and the interests of our client. My associate and I worked six weeks on the bill, terests and the interests of our client. My as-sociate and I worked six weeks on the bill, which is voluminous and drawn with the ut-most care. We have the best of reasons to be-lieve that a large number of other minority stockholders will unite with us in this move-ment, and that by the time of the coming hear-ing a half dozen more lawyers will appear for claimants similar to Mrs. Clark."

Named for Permanent Receiver.

"Have you any idea who will be permanent receiver in case Judge Speer decides to appoint one?" I asked Mr. Rountree. "I, of course, cannot state whom Judge Speer will select. That is the province of the court. I understand, though, that the names of Captain W. G. Rauers, General E. P. Alexander, Colonel W. W. Gordon, Cecil Gabbett and one or two others will be presented under such circumstances for the consideration of the court. No one will question the fact that either of these gentlemen would make a good receiver."

would make a good receiver."

"You know that your action has created almost a panic among stockholders here do you most a panic among stockholders here do you not?"

"No, but if such is the case I am sorry, but it is senseless. As I have said before, this movement, if the minority stockholders would but regard it properly, will protect their interests. It was bound to come sooner or later and they will be thankful hereafter that the step was taken at this particular juncture. They will be gainers by it in the end."

Mr. Rountree will remain here tomorrow, personally serving subpenas, securing evidence, and otherwise perfecting the case. There is hardly any question that Charleton & Mackall will become interested in the case, owing to their thorough familiarity with the General Alexander Talks.

General Alexander was in his office with the counsel for the road when I called. He smiled when the subject of the receivership was broached. "I have not seen a copy of the bill, and I cannot say much," said he. "All I know is that I have been appointed and have accepted the position of temporary receiver of the Central company." He seemed surprised when informed that the bill contempated the appointment of a permanent receiver. When pressed, he said that he could not prophesy the decision of the court as to who would be made permanent receiver in case the court decided to appoint one appoint one. "The road will run on just the same until "The road will run on just the same until the court decides what action it will take," said he, "and after that I suppose it will continue in operation just as it is now. Of course, this step will cause a great surprise. I had no intimation that such a thing was contemplated. Occupying the position I do I cannot enter into any discussion or criticise the step and what its probable results will be. As I have told you, I do not care to pose in this instance as a prophet without any in this instance as a prophet without any knowledge on which to base a prophecy or to consisting the sum of the same aprophecy of the express any opinion."

The counsel for the Central are equally noncommunicative. In fact, the officials seem to be half stunned by the suddenness of the thing, although they knew from what had been published. lished in the past in The Constitution of the weakness of the lease and the probability of a minority stockholder at any time attacking it just where the United States court has shown its weakness to be.

The Receiver Departs.

General Alexander left tonight on the Central train, presumably for Macon. It is believed he goes there to consult with Judge Speer and receive more specific instructions as to his duties as temporary receiver. Mr. Rountree says that it is merely to see that the assets of the company are not removed from the state, and that the Richmond and Danville will continue for the present to corrate the will continue for the present to operate the Central. Judge Speer's object in appointing General Alexander under such restrictions as General Alexander under such restrictions as are imposed in the order was to keep things in statue quo until he finally passes upon the questions at issue. If a stockholder had not taken the step Mrs. Clark has, it is generally believed here that one of the many creditors of the company here would soon have done so. Many thousands of dollars are owing business men here who have been endeavoring in some instances for months to obtain a settlement. This after noon lawyers were in demand by people who noon lawyers were in demand by people wh were desirons of having their rights as creditors protected. This will introduce some new feat-ures into the case, and may tend to complicate it more than it would otherwise be.

She Owns Fifty Shares.

The original copy of the bill in the case was brought to Savannah and filed in the clerk's office here today. There are twenty-three pages of typewriter. The oratrix, Mrs. Rowena M. Clark, of Charleston, in the bill which is for injunction, receiver and relief, says that she is the owner of fifty shares of the contral stock of the commany of the value of capital stock of the company of the value of $4,000 or more, and that she files this bill on her own behalf and on behalf of all other on her own behalf and on behalf of all other stockholders who are similarly situated and who may choose to come in and share in the benefits and expenses of this suit.

In section 14 of the bill it is charged that E. P. Alexander, Patrick Calhoun, John C. Calhoun, H. B. Hollins, E. Lehman, Alfred Sully, Isaac Rice. E. E. Denniston, John H. Inman, John S. Hall, and others unknown, among whom, however, are believed to be Samuel Thomas, Calvin S. Brice, James Swanr, August Belmont, S. JOHN H. INMAN.

. THE TALK IN ATLANTA.

Some of the Discussion That the Receiver-ship Has Called Out.

The appointment of a receiver for the Central was unexpected yesterday, though it had long been predicted. It will be the sensation all over Georgia today as it was in Atlanta's railroad and finan-cial circles last night. "Who is at the bottom of it?" was a question asked a hundred times.

Shrewd men said that it is a move on the part of General Thomas, Calvin Brice and the controlling interest in the Richmond Termi-Pat Calhoun was thought of, but his protessional associates here, Mr. Jack Spalding and Mr. Alex King, stated positively and emphatically that Mr. Calhoun has no connection with the application for a re-

Captain Harry Jackson and Mr. Pope Barrow, the Richmond and Danville's assistant general counsel, declined to be interviewed. Captain Jackson stated that he knew nothing about the matter. Mr. Barrow, in declining to talk, gave a similar reason.

The public had grown suspicious at the postponements of the Olcott plan of reorganization. As The Constitution remarked on Sunday morning, the promises that the report would be submitted in a few days had been made so often that a feeling of distrust was growing stronger in the public mind. On Wednesday a director of the Central railroad presented a formal demand at the regular monthly board meeting calling upon the Georgia Central to take action to cancel the lease to the Georg'a Pacific, and to attack the control of the Terminal company and overthrow its power to vote all the 40,000 shares of Central stock. The attack was to be based on the ground that the Terminal violated the state constitution in holding the stock and making the lease.

Supposed Causes. This is believed to have been the immediate cause of the receivership being precipitated at this time. But there were other causes contributing to the step. If the insiders did not take it, some one else would very soon, for there were two, if not three, petitions for a receiver for the Central in as many lawyers' offices over the state.

It was predicted several days ago that the Olcott committee would not be able to carry out its plan. Failure meant loss of confidence in all the Terminal's properties and an attack from every direction. Even could the plan be carried out and the exchange of securities made, antagonistic legislation was threatened in nearly all the states penetrated by the Ter-minal's roads. The impression prevailed that the exchange of new securities for the old in the event the plan of reorganization reached that stage, the Central and Southwestern security holders would get the lean, while the fat would go to the insiders on Wall street. That was resented in Georgia, and it was known to the Terminal people. It was freely stated that the Georgia holdings would not be surrendered in exchange for those proposed by the Olcott plan.

Another cause for alarm to the Terminal was the attitude of the Geor-gia railroad commission, which has been collecting data preparatory making an attack on the validity of the Cena move was contemplated by the commission has been no secret.

The commission was inspired by the Richmond and Danville's proceedings to enjoin the enforcement of the order as to joint rates.

Is It a Wrecking Scheme? A financial man who has been watching the Terminal's affairs closely of late, said last night:

"The drop in the price of Terminal securities on Thursday is now plain to me. And I think that Brice and Thomas were unloading while the ink on the bill for an injunction and receiver was drying. They pulled the wires, and when they were ready gave the word to let her go. They wanted to get rid of the Central. That has been well known. Pat Calhoun said last January in his letter that Brice and Thomas were planning to wreck the road. Does it not look so? Why would they throw in into the hands of a receiver? Because it is to their advantage. They can excuse the failure of the Olcott plan of reorganization. Then it is to their interest to have ganization. Then it is to their interest to have their own man in. It has been charged and is really a fact that they were behind the people who brought the suit three years ago to break the lease of the East Tennessee to the Richmond Terminal. That suit was ostensibly brought in the Tennessee court by Philadelphia parties. Since then it has come to be generally understood that while Richard the price and generally understood that while Brica and Thomas were outwardly tighting to preserve the lease, they were really encouraging those who sought to break it.

"I believe that they are behind this step. "I believe that they are benind this step. Who the Charlestonian owning the large block of Central stock is I do not know. Mr. Rountree is the general counsel of the Atlanta and Florida, I learn, having succeeded to that position upon the resignation of Captain Jackson. Mr. Rountree's relations with some of the Bishward Tarminal officials are revealed. the Richmond Terminal officials are very close, and I heard a lawyer say that he could put his hands on the attorney who drew up the application, that is if the gentleman were in the city.' Guessing at the Effect. All sorts of reports were affect.

All sorts of reports were affect last night as to the results of this move. The Richmond and Danville has a floating debt of $5,000,000 in New York, which is liable to be called at any moment. Here in Atlanta there are suits pending against the Richmond and Danville and the Georgia Pacific for a very large amount, estimated at $2,000,000.

Garnishments were heing repeared in more amount, estimated at $2,000,000.

Garnishments were being prepared in more than one lawyer's office last night, it was said, and the prediction was made that they will be slapped on the Richmond and Danville thick and fast for the next few days.

Indeed, there was gossip about the collapse of the entire Richmond and Danville system. The Cantral's floating debt was arranged last fell.

Central's floating debt was arranged last fall. and it is in the best financial shape of all the Terminal's properties.

General Alexander, or a representative, is expected to arrive in Atlanta today and serve notice upon General Manager Green, of the notice upon General Manager Green, of the Richmond and Danville, or upon his representative. Then the receiver will probably appoint the Richmond and Danville officials to operate the system. It is not expected that any change in the location of the Central's headquarters will follow—certainly not for the present. It seems that under the order appointing the temporary receiver there can be no material changes now.

Told You So's.

December interest, and when they did finally pay it they put in a claim for something like eight hundred thousand dollars alleged to be due the Georgia Pacific. That was a bluff game. Nobody who is posted expects the Georgia Pacific to pay the June interest if it can be avoided. Every day that the minority stockholders were staved off was of advantage to the Richmond Terminal, for it is raking in the receipts.

"The minority stockholders may or may not go in to help break the lease. I am inclined to believe that it would be best for the minor ity to go against the majority, and insist on having the lease sustained. So long as 7 per cent dividends are paid on the Central and Southwestern stock and the fixed charges are kept up, the minority holders are better off than they would be in going through a receivership.

"Judge Emory Speer has decided two cases similar to this one against the majority. Suppose he makes the receiver permanent, the lease will not be broken until the court so decides."

An examember of the

An ex-member of the general assembly, from a middle Georgia county, was interviewed at the Kimbali house last night.

"There is hard feeling and lots of it in my section against this consolidation of all the railroads. I wouldn't think of being a candidate for rejection except as the opponent of railroads. I have talked to prominent men from east and middle Georgia recently, and discovered that the temper of the public is mighty ticklish on the subject of railroads. And I find some men who are going to make political capital by jumping on corporations. The legislation will be aimed at everything. The Richmond and Danville and the Georgia Pacific will catch fits."

ON WALL STREET.

Some of the Insiders Seem to Have Been Caught on the Slump. New York, March 4.—(Special:)—Wall street was flooded with rumors after the close of business yesterday of serious trouble in the plan of reorganization of the Richmond Terminal company.

These rumors were renewed today and caused a very uneasy feeling among the holders of the company's securities. The first intimation that anything was wrong was known to the insiders early yesterday afternoon, but the secret was well kept, and no confirmation of the various rumors set affoat in the street could

All that was positively known was that under heavy pressure of sales, Terminal preferred had broken seven points and the common stock three points. The 5 per cent bonds also closed two and one-quarter points lower than they opened. Today a much steadier tone prevailed. Some of the reasons for the slump leaked out this morning. One of the features of the plan for the recreanization was the creation of a syndicate which was to provide $33,500,000, which sum was to be used to retire the present Terminal 6 per cent bonds, amounting to $5,500,000; also the $4,909,000 first mortgage 7 per cent bonds of the Central railroad of Georgia, and to lift the floating debts and car trusts on the various minor roads. It was the threatened failure to raise this sum which created the heavy selling of Terminal securities. All that was positively known was that

The firm of Broad street bankers who had The firm of Broad street bankers who had charge of this feature undertook alone to raise this sum. Various interests in the road were asked to join hands and raise the required amount, and it had been understood the amount could be procured without trouble. But it was publicly stated today that the required amount was not more than one-balf subscribed for, and that of this amount probably only $10,000,000 could be counted on. This guarantee fund is what has caused bly only $10,000,000 could be counted on.
This guarantee fund is what has caused the continual postponement of the publication of the plan. Unless the amount can be made on the plan. These teachers can be made up it is thought that the plan may have to be changed again, and that holders of some of the securities which were intended to be retired will have to be satisfied with accepting the securities of the new company.

Another very unpleasant contingency may

The strange part of the whole affair seems to be that the largest interests in the road were ignorant of the failure of the firm to ruise the fund. They all supposed that the fund was practically completed At a hurriedly called conference yesterday they learned how matters stood. One of the Richmond and Danville guarantee committee said today:

"There is no cause for alarm in the failure to raise so large a sum. We can get along on less and if necessary will do so."

The statements show that the negroes own nearly one-thirty-third of the real and personal property in the state.

Van Thomas Hanged in Columbia.

Van Thomas Hanged in Columbia. Columbia, S. C., March 4.—(Special.)—Van Thomas was hanged at Abbeville today for the murder of John Brackett. His neck was broken by the fall, and he was pronounced dead in six minutes. The execution took place inside the jail and was private. He met death firmly. On the scaffold he made a full confession to the sheriff, and also confessed that he killed and robbed a negro in 1889, in Chester. He said a robbed a negro in 1889, in Chester. He said a number of negroes were suspected, but no evidence could be found against them. He said he was next suspected. The crime for which Van Thomas was executed was an atrocious one. George Brackett was an industrious colored man and was engaged in cutting crossties on the Georgia, Carolina and Northern railroad. Thomas saw him have about twenty dollars, made up his mind to have it, so he hired Brackett to help him cut, and when they got down into the bottoms he knocked him in the head with an ax and robbed him of his money. He then threw the body in the creek and made his escape.

Have Changed Their Tactles.

Jondon, March 4.—With Mr. Gladstone's return to parliament the tactics of the opposition bave changed. Sir William Vernon Harcourt's policy of trying to force a dissolution by every possible device of worry and obstruction has been aban-doned. It is now known that Gladstone hurried back, owing to Sir William not accepting the instructions to refrain from appearing desirous to hasten action on the part of the government Secure upon the result of an appeal to the country, Mr. Gladstone has advised his colleagues to give the ministers rope and let the electorate bimpressed with the spectacle of a conservative regime expiring by gradual decomposition.

BOURKE, COCKRAN AND TOM GRADY

Are Being Pressed by Senator Colquits to Be in Atlanta on the 17th-A Great Time Expected.

Washington, March 4 .- (Special.) - Senator Asfred H. Colquitt expects Congressman Bourke Cockran, the great New York orat r, and Thomas F. Grady, the Tammany crator, to go down to Atlanta on the 17th to the Hibernians celebration of St. Patrick's I ay and deliver democratic addresses at the Hill celebration on the 18th. Mr. Cockran s now out of the city, and Senator Colquitt cannot tell positively whether he can go or not, though he feels certain that he will accept the invitation if possible. Mr. Cockran told me several days ago that he had always had a desire to go to Atlanta, and be intended doing so when the first oppor-tunity presented itself. Consequently unless there is something here that makes his presence necessary the chances are he will co, and if he does, Atlanta will be treated to speech from the most eloquent orator in congress. Senator Hill leaves here Sunday night for Jackson. He will pass through Atlanta Monday afternoon. He has received invitations from nearly every southern town on Lis route to stop over. Of course he cannot co this, but he is a man who can say a great deal in little time, and some good cratic speeches will perhaps be heard from he rear platform of the train he happens to be on. The latest invitation came touight from Americus. He can't step over there but fer minutes as him to the can't step over there from Americus. He can't step over there but ten minutes, as his train goes through, but that will give its citizens time to listen o his eloquence and sound democracy.

Telegrams of invitation to stop off atvarious southern cities are pouring in upon Senator Hill in great numbers. Tonight telegrams came from Selma, Ala., signed by Mayor Stewart: from Orlando, Fla. by Mayor Stewart; from Orlando, Fla., signed by J. L. Bryan and W. R. Anno, stating that a Hill club had been organized and inviting him to address it; from Vicksburg signed by Mayor Booth; from Knoxville signed by a score of prominent demo-erats; from Selma, Ala., signed by D. M. Callaway, and from many others.

Senator Hill Will Be in Savannah. Hon. Fleming DuEignon, of Savannah, is here today, on his return from New York. He occupied a seat in the speaker's gallery this morning, and was a guest of Senator Hill this evening. Senator Hill will certainly be in Savannah on the 17th. Mr. Springer Is Better.

Mr. Springer is better today, and his physician now thinks there is a good chance of his ecovery. This message was sent to the house late this afternoon, and it was received with much delight by all the members, for Mr. Springer occupies a position in the house that no other man could fill. He is a splendid debater, always cool and conservative, but quick and strong in argument—a man the democrats could ill afford to lose. He is not yet out of danger by any means, but the belief and hope is that he will now recover. Washington's climate is the worst in the world, and for several weeks ha than usual. As a consequence, many congressmen and public men are ill.

strong Indicating Straws from The St. Louis

Republic and The Courier-Journal. Washington, March 4.—(Special.)—The Louisville Courier-Journal has a sensational dispatch from its Washington correspondent, in which the announcement is made that Senator Palmer, on his return from Illinois, openly announces that the Illinois democratic ecovention will probably instruct for Hill.

Senator Palmer has studied the situation very carefully in his own state, and the announcement that it will probably in-struct for Hill comes with decided significance. The St. Louis Republic, which is probably the most intense of all the intense Cleveland papers, publishes a special from ably the most intense of all the intense Cleveland papers, publishes a special from its Washington correspondent in which it practically gives up the fight for Cleveland. Heretofore this paper has been steadily claiming that Connecticut was solid for Cleveland. It takes a different view of the situation now so far as that state is concerned, making the statement that while "six weeks ago the leaders in Connecticut were Cleveland men, it is now extremely probable that a Hill delegation will go from the Nutmeg State to Chicago."

Evidences are constantly accumulating, showing that the doubtful states will be practically solid for Hill at the national convention, and Mr. Cleveland's closest friends here have given up the fight, so far as he is concerned.

Washington March 4.—The report that United States in April is discredited at the state department for the reason that he has made no intimation even of such an intention. Will Not Enter the Race for the Governorship, NOR WILL THE THIRD PARTY OWN HIM.

Colonel Norwood Knows Nothing of the Rumors in Circulation Concerning His Course-The Situation.

Savannah, Ga., March 4.-(Special.)-Hon Thomas M. Norwood seemed greatly surprised when informed this morning by The Constitution correspondent of the rumors going over the state to the effect that he's to be the candidate of the third party for governor of Gerogia. "I know nothing about it," said he. "The information you give me is the first I have heard of it. All I need to say is that I am not seeking any public office, and have no idea of being a candidate for the governoret ip, or any other position."

Declined to Discuss the Third Party. Colonel Norwood declined to discuss the third party, and its possibilities of success. He is always willing to speak a word for the farmers when it can be of and service to them, but has not yet given the political situation that thorough study that is neces-151y before he can express an opinion as to the probable results. His papers on the alliance plans, and his own projects for the relief of the agricultural class, have drawn to him not only the attention of the aliance in Georgia, but throughout the south, and even in the west farmers' organizations appreciate the fact that in the brainy Georgian they have a friend. Out of these facts, and the recent publication of the request of Georgia alliancemen of a resume of Colonel Norwood's previous exhaustive discussion of his own plan, grew the rumor that the allioncemen who are interested in the third porty movement had selected him as their candidate for governor. Many of the ex-senator's farmer friends look to him as a who, if he could be induced to enter the third party, would make excellent tim-ber on a national ticket.

He Is Not Office Seeking. People are wrong, though, to place the enstruction upon Colonel Norwwod's action that some have done. Referring to this phase of the matter this morning, he said:

"What I have written and spoken was with no view whatever to any political or other office, but was said and written from a deep conviction of the oppression growing out of our present financial system, and from a desire to contribute something, if possible, to the relief of the south. My view is that relief is to be had through national and not state politics at all, and on all questions relating to home rule I see no reason for any difference of opinion or di-

HE IS A BAD NEGRO, But He Will Now Linger Behind the Prison Columbus, Ga., March 4 .- (Special.)-The

negro who held up young Frank Garrard, son of Hon. Lewis F. Garrard, on Tuesday after-noon, robbed him of his gun which he obtained by subterfuge, cursed and abused him foully and took his hat, has at last been arrested, and was brought to the city today. He sold the gun for $8 and a banjo to G. Nuckols, a short distance from Nuckols's bend, on the Chattahoochee river. Early this morning Thomas McCollister, of Phenix City, left on the train for Geneva, and saw in The Enquirer-Sun a graphic description of the fugi-tive negro. At Upatoie he noticed a coppercolored mulatto getting off the train, who answered so remarkably to the description that his special attention was at once directed to him. The negro was evidently in a big hurry, as he left his overcoat behind him in the smoking car. McCollister saw it, and called to the negro to come back and get his coat. The fellow did so, and as he entered the car McCollister seized him and told him he was a prisoner. The negro objected to arrest, and said he would rather be killed than be taken, when McCollister promptly drew his pistol and presenting it in the negro's face, told him he could be accommodated. This cowed the negro, and he was secured and brought back to the city. He was identified as Andy Johnson, and finally acknowledged that he had taken the gun from young Garrard. A preliminary nination was held, when it was discovered that there were several charges against the fellow, who is known to be a notoriously bad negro, and who had boasted that he had killed a white man, but had never been caught. He was committed to jail in default of $1,000 ball in a case of highway robbery in taking young Garrard's gun, and in another case. The feeling is very strong against the negro, who acknowledges he has Indian blood, and who is too dangerous a negro to be at large.

In his strenuous and desperate efforts to stand in with both factions he has gotten himself into untold trouble.

He wants above all things earthly to be one of the delegares from the state at large to the national convention. A few days ago nobody of inducence in the party had any particular objections to this arrangement. But now it's different.

Some of his antics in the district fight may work his defeat.

He does not want Angier to go to the convention, because it is against the president's orders to send office holders. But he can see no reason why he should not go himself, notwithstanding the fact that he is United States district marshal. Neither can he see any inconsistency in Colonel S. A. Darnell, who is United States district attorney, representing his congressional district in the national convention.

The fight will be a hard one and neither side is going to acknowledge defeat as long as there is a ghost of a show for success in sight will be a fearful setback to the anti-Angier-Wimbish faction, which is supported by Buck and other old party faithfuls, to be out-generated by the vigorous young combination that has just risen and is trying to capture and operate the whole machine, and their fight will be a descerate one.

Made a Bad Break.

Buck made a bad break when he refused to ferve on that conference committee the other afternoon that was selected by the three white randidates to agree upon one of the three as the white delegate from this district.

Buck had his preference, of course, but he slid not care to express it in the presence of the opposition's friends, for fear of the opposition's friends, for fear of creating opposition to his selection as one of the delegates from the state at large. He refused to act on the committee. This displeased his friends and in no manner trengthened him with his opponents.

His is truly a lamentable case.

Darnell Denies. Made a Bad Break.

Parnell Denies. There is a story going the rounds of the press that there is to be an exclusive white man's republican party organized in Georgia, and that District Attorney Darnell is to head and that District Attorney Darnen is to head the movement.

In speaking of the matter yesterday Colonel Darnell said: "The story current that I am engaged to head a proposed organization of the white republicans of the state is without foundation. I am not engaged in any reform movement whatever, and am not willing to be thus misrepresented. I am not in any fight against persons who believe there ought to be reforms, nor am I willing to be understood as being in any fight for or against those who do not believe reforms necessary." Shooting Affray in LaGrange.

LaGrange, Ga., March 4.—(Special.)—There was a shooting affray in this city last night, the real facts of which may not be brougt to light soon, on account of both parties (negroes) belonging to a secret organization. The trouble grew out of a quarrel which really began last year, between Aaron Culberson and Andrew Thornhill, two well known negroes of this place. The quarrel was renewed last night, while a crowd was in attendance at the lodge, and after a few words were passed Thornhill applied a very insulting epithet to Culberson whereupon the latter drew forth a revolver and sent a ball into the left lung of Thornhill.

The negro is yet alive, but the chances are decidedly against him. Shooting Affray in LaGrange.

The reception was held in the lecture room, and was the largest reception held in the church in many years. Over five hundred people were present, and a general handshaking was enjoyed. The handshaking has been been been been treated for a condition handshaking was enjoyed. ing lasted for nearly an hour, when the rendition of the splendid programme was rendition of the splendid programme was begun. The programme was as follows:

Piano Solo—Miss Maggie Birney.
Reading—Mr. Clifford Harry.
Vocal Solo—Mr. John Gooper.
Recitation—Miss Helen Murdock.
Cornet Solo—Mr. A. D. Maghee.
Recitation—Miss Loy McAfee.
Recitation—Miss Ethel King.
The programme was faultlessly rendered, and completely captured the large audience.
Every person who participated in the exercises did well, and deserve great praise.
Mrs. Annie Mays Dow, who was to have sang a solo, was unavoidably absent, much to the regret of all present.
The reception, and entertainment which followed, was a grand success, and the young people who had it in charge are due much credit for the excellent manner in which they managed it.

TATE OF GEORGIA, FULTON COUNTY-TO

STATE OF GEORGIA, FULTON COUNTY—TO the Superior Court of Said County: The petition of Charles Heermann, Albert Steiner, Paul Romare, Morris Benjamin and Sol Benjamin, of said county, showeth that they desire, for themselves and their associates and successors, to be incorporated and made a body corporate under the name of the "STANDARD ICE COMPANY."

The object of said corporation is pecuniary gain to its stockholders, and to this end they propose to carry on the business of manufacturing, selling and dealing in ice, and also to buy, sell and deal in coal and wood, and carry on the business of cold storage, and petitioners pray for the privilege of buying or leasing ice plants, and other property, real or personal, necessary or proper to carry on the business as aforesaid, and to the other things as may be proper or necessary to the business as aforesaid, and to have all the powers set forth in the code and laws of this state, incident to such corporations, and, also, full power to borrow money, make notes and issue bonds, script and other evidences of debt, and to secure the same by mortgage, deed of trust, or in such manner as may be deemed best, to loan any money of the corporation not invested in said business, or any proporty, real or personal, proper or incident to the business.

The principal office and place of doing business of said corporation is to be in Atlanta, said ness, and to hold, buy, sell, lease or rent, any property, real or personal, proper or incident to the business.

The principal office and place of doing business of said corporation is to be in Atlanta, said county; but petitioners pray, also, for the pivilege of establishing agencies and doing business elsewhere, as corporations under the laws of rhis state may lawfully do.

The capital stock of said corporation is to be $10,000 (ten thousand doilars), divided into shares of one hundred dollars ($100) cach, and 50 per cent of which capital stock has already been paid in, with the power, also, of increasing said capital stock from time to time to any amount not exceeding $100,000, divided into shares of, $100 cach, when 10 per cent of such increase has been first actually paid in, and when such increase has been furst actually paid in, and when such increase has been furst actually paid in, and when such increase has been furst actually paid in, and when such increase. Petitioners pray for the power of establishing such bylaws and rules for their government, and for such number of directors and other officers as they may deem necessary and proper.

Wherefore, petitioners pray that this petition be filed in the clerk's office of said county, and there recorded, and then published as required by law, and that the court then pass an order incorporating them under the corporate hame aforesaid, for the full term of twenty years, with the right of renewaljand with all the privileges and powers aforesaid.

Tuesday, March 18th, at 4 o'clock, p. m., threestory brick building, on lot 30x136, corner Marietta and Earl streets, the John Dayis property.

This is a splendid piece of central business property. The Atlanta saw works occupy thirty feet, being the building formally used by Mr. Davis, for which they pay $600 under a lease which runs until September, 1894.

The building on the other fifty feet is a strong,
three-story new brick building put up by Mr.
Davis for his own use, but in consequence of the failing health of Mrs. Davis, be findsit necessary to return to Baltimore and has concluded to sell the property. For factory purposes no such a building can be found; built to hold heavy machinery. Oposite is the new Kiser building, occupied by Conklin's factory. The location is good. Marietta street is destined to be a main business street, and the central location gives promise for a rapid increase in value, besides good interest on the investment. It is much better to buy a new well-built building on property than to buy vacaut ground, and no man has bought lots on Marietta street that has not made money.
Moneyed men need no advice from he about where to put their cash. We only ask you to look at the property and see for yourselves.

How It Works in Pennsylvania.

Speaking of early conventions-a sub ject that has been made interesting by the sham protest of certain so-called democrats in New York city-it is curious that those of our editorial brethren In Georgia and elsewhere who have soundly denounced the mid-winter convention in New York should have refused to turn their attention to the queer proceedings which have taken place in Pennsylvania in the name of Mr. Cleve-

The Constitution has already called at tention to the snap movement in Pennsylvania which began in the appointment of Cleveland delegates to the state convention almost before the national convention had been called. We believe there was no complaint made by our Cleveland brethren: rather they were inclined to claim the affair as a sort of tribute to purity in politics and as an example of the high ideals of statesmanship. (We believe this is the lingo which they affeet.)

The movement in Pennsylvania has gone on, but we have yet to hear any complaint from those who talk about purity and high ideals. We desire, however, to call attention to the fact that this Cleveland movement in Pennsylvania is not a popular one. The democratic voters are absolutely shut out. They have no choice in the matter whatever. We have heard a good deal about the "machine" in New York, yet in the selection of delegates to the state convention, this machine paid attention to the will of the people. It called for primaries in which the voice of the voters could be heard.

But in Pennsylvania the machine is an affair peculiar to itself. In the selection of Cleveland delegates it has not gone to the people at all-the democratic voters have had no opportunity to make their choice known. The democratic "standing committees" of the various counties meet together, select delegates and instruct them. There have been no county conventions, no primaries; the voters have not been heard from. We have preserved some of the announce ments which have from time to time gone forth from Pennsylvania, and we present a few of them here in order to show the true inwardness of the situation from the standpoint of "purity" in politics and high ideals in statesmanship: politics and high ideals in statesmanship:

Carlisle, Pa., February 27.—The democratic standing committee of Cumberland county today elected the following delegates to the state convention: F. E. Beltzhoover, Calvin Clandenin, George W. Paxton, Joseph Best, Dr. P. Kegerels, Levi Railing. They are Cleveland delegates, with Pattison as second choice, and instructed to vote as a unit and support Cleveland for president and Challenge. upport Cleveland for president and Chairma Shearer for delegate to the national conven

Lock Haven, Pa., February 27,-The democratic standing committee of Clinton county today elected S. R. Peale, T. C. Hipple, C. R. Noyes delegates to the democratic state convention, and passed resolutions in favor of Cleveland for the democratic nomination for president. Stroudsburg, Pa., February 27.-The Monro county democratic committee met today and declared in favor of Cleveland for president. Clarion., Pa., March 1.-The democratic inty committee met today, and elected W. Hindman, J. A. Hoy, N. S. Coulter and A. M. Neeley delegates to the state convention and instructed for W. A. Hindman for national delegate, and to favor a Cle land delegation to Chicago.

This makes the situation plain. In order to keep their politics pure and retain the high ideals of statesmanship pure It is necessary for the Cleveland men in Pennsylvania to ignore the people altogether. Think how it would lower the ideals to permit the ordinary democratic voters to hold conventions of their own or vote in primaries. How vulgar it would be, especially if a majority of the voters happened to be for Hill.

Let our readers compare this smothering of the party's voice in Pennsylvania in the interest of purity and high ideals of statesmanship, with the primaries in New York state where the democratic voters made their presence and influence Democratic Tests.

Some of the newspapers devoted to Mr. Cleveland contain this interesting comment on the work of the Georgia democratic executive committee:

A feature of the committee's action today that is being very strongly criticised by dem-ocrats generally was the failure to adopt some standard by which to gauge democrats. There are yeary many people who have heretofore been democrats, who are now open and avowed third party men. In the meeting today the Cleveland men tried to have some sort of a "yardstick" adopted, so only dem ocrats could vote in the primaries. The Hill question whether the executive committee should set up and advertise a gauge of democracy—whether it should improvise a yardstick-was settled moment it came before that body. There was no room for any serious discussion. The committee had no author ity to advertise a gauge of democracy, and if it had possessed such authority. there was no resaon why it should have been exercised. The democratic party of Georgia is made up of a very large body of voters, and the members here, as they do else where, differ in regard to matters of party policy and expediency. These differces in regard to non-essentials have always existed and will always exist.

The committee could not say that those who do not believe in the restoration of silver are not democrats, nor could it presume to set up a standard which would drive out of the party the farmers who are inclined to look favorably on the subtreasury plan. The action which, according to the telegram, the Cleveland men advocated, would have destroyed the party beyond repair. The call of the committee is addressed, as it should be, "to the democrats of Georgia." This phrase includes all who will support the nominations of the national convention and stand on its platform. It covers all differences of opinion as to matters of policy or expediency, and it recognizes the democracy of all who are prepared to aid in placing the party in power.

We are not informed by the telegram from which we have quoted what sort of a standard the Cleveland men would have set up; whether they would exclude those who are in favor of the remonetization of silver in opposition to Mr. Cleveland's well-known views, or whether they would shut out those who are in favor of any form of financial relief that runs counter to the views of Wall street. We are not told whether the committee should have closed the door against those democratic farmers who have been bold enough to demand either the repeal of class legislation or a definite share in it.

We are not informed in regard to these matters, and the committee did not discuss them. But it is certain that if the committee had set up any standard of democracy different from that which has prevailed in this state since the war, and which still prevails, a tremendous impulse would have been given to the third party movement, which, at present, has no ground to go on. We see what a schism has been created in the democratie party of South Carolina by the contention on the part of a faction that the farmers have no right to impress their views on the party.

In respect to matters of policy and expediency, there has always been great latitude allowed in the democratic party. The test of democracy and the only test that is worth talking about is the desire of a voter to place the party in power so that its principles may be applied to the administration of affairs, and so that the reforms which the people demand may be put in operation.

The Cleveland bolters in New York are "trying to save the party" by claiming that the party doesn't represent itself. This is the adlest scheme that has been con cocted since Colonel Bolivar Bulldozer had himself bored for the hollow horn, Jones, of St. Louis, says the "Valley" for president Hill stands close to the valley.

Brother Watterson was right when he said that the Hill movement was active and progressive. The southern negroes propose to have a hand in the republican convention, but what good will it do them? The white folks get the offices. The Boston Herald seems to be powerless to change the Massachusett's democrats unexpected sag here. What use are the democratic voters in Pennsylvania anyhow? Three or four committeemen in each county constitute the machine which does the voting and elect-

EDITORIAL COMMENT.

Eugene Field writes in The Chicago News: "Opie P. Read sold his first novel outright for $125. This was 'Len Gansett,' and the purchasers were Houghton, Mifflin & Co., of Boston. The novel did not sell very well, but a Chicago publisher fancied he could make money out of it if he had the copyright. To this publisher the Boston firm sold the copyright and stereotype plates for $100, and the Chicago man forthwith printed and began to push it with the trade. Up to this time 60,000 copies of the book have been sold and the sale continues steadily. The same publisher took Ignatius Donnelly's story of 'Cæsar's Column' after it had been rejected i manuscript by the leading publishers of the country, and 150,000 of this work have been sold already, although 2,500 copies had to be given away before the press critics could be induced to read and notice the book."

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE.

Card from Mr. E. W. Barrett. Washington, March 4.—Editor Constitution: In a speech in the house of representatives Thurs-day, three days after he had received and read my article to The Constitution, Mr. Watson, of Georgia, made a speech in which he sought to make it ap-pear that I had charged him with bribery for voting for the republican contestee in the Pennsylvania care. I made no such charge, but did comment n his vote, stating that democrats had construed to mean that he was playing to get financial aid it to mean that he was playing to get financial aid in his next campaign for congress. But I added that those who knew Mr. Watson best knew he yould not resort to any such deals.

Mr. Watson took this, placed the construction that can only come from a guilty conscience upon it and denounced his own trumped-up charge or construction as false. He also sought to attack others over my shoulders.

My statements of facts are borne out by the record as true, and every newspaper has the right to comment upon the votes or acts of a public man. When Mr. Watson placed his own construction upon my dispatch and denounced it, he did it for I have once before convicted Mr. Watson of deliberately lying for notoriety, and so denounced him. notorlety.

Miss Sanders's Adventure.

Editor Constitution-In the special which ap peared in your issue of March 2d, concerning th adventure of Miss Dena Sanders of this city, that lady is, unintentionally, done a great injustice. It is stated that she jerked the whip from the man's hand and attempted to strike him with it, when he drew his pistol and cursed her. This isso entirely unlike Miss Sanders that no one who knows her will believe it. The fact is, he threw the whip on the ground, and on being asked to pick it up, refused to do so, adding oaths to his refusal. She then told him he was no gentleman, whereupon he drew his pistol on her and cursed her violently.

GEORGIA POLITICAL NOTES.

Of the action of the Georgia state executive

Of the action of the Georgia state executive committee at its recent meeting in Atlanta, The Macon Evening News says:

"Chairman Atkinson is on the right line. The republicans have vainly tried for a long time to break the force of the solid south. The so-called third party movement is only an insidious ferm of republicanism, and is receiving all possible aid and comfort from that source. Should the third party movement attain any considerable proportions in the tain any considerable proportions in the south, it must be at the expense of the democracy."

The people of the city and surrounding country will turn out en masse," says The Times-Re-corder, and demonstrate, in no uncertain way, the great popularity in southwest Georgia of the man who is destined to be the next president of the United States."

The grand jury that served the present term of Walker county court was a representative body. At the request of The LaFayette Messenger a poil was taken of the body as to the choice of the members for president. The record was made as each vote was cast. Hill received 16, Blaine 4 and Cleveland 3. Of those three men, says The Messenger, Hill is the choice of Walker county, which fact is fairly represented in the vote of the grand jury.

The entries for the race are "Black Diamond," owned by Steinau and Jones; "White Man," owned by H. Madden, of Augusta, and two other unknown pacers owned by Nunnally, of Kentucky, and Tiller & Lofton, of Atlanta.

The race will begin at 3:30 o'clock, and 25 cents admission will be charged.

TWO SALDONS BURGLARIZED. The Front Doors Boldly Broken Open-But Little Stolen.

Two saloons on Alabama street were broken open last night by unknown parties.

One was S. T. Grady's railroad saloon and the other at Pappa's liquor-dispensing establishment. The front doors of both places were prised open with an iron bar. There was nothing stolen from Grady's place except a small quantity of whisky. A few dollars in money and some whishy was taken from Pappa's place. The police are on the lookout for the burglars.

FROM OUR NOTEBOOKS.

A Narrow Escape.—Yesterday while Mrs. Joyner, wife of Chief Joyner, was riding with her mother and sister in their carriage, as they turned the Broad street corner into Alabama street a runaway team dashed against them, smashing their carriage and throwing them out in the street. Fortenately no Injury was done to any of them. The carriage was badly smashed up.

Looking for His Horse.—Dr. L. M. Garner, of Smyrna, was in Atlanta yesterday looking for a fine black horse, which was stolen from his stables Wednesday night. The thief broke a lock on the barn door to secure the animal, and made his ride easier by borrowing the doctor's saddle and bridle, which hung on a peg in the stable. Thursday morning when the horse's absence was discovered Dr. Garner began a search. That day he secured information which induced him to believe that the thief had come towards Atlanta with the horse. Yesterday the doctor arrived in Atlanta, and after searching the stock yards reported his loss at police headquarters.

Lost Two Fingers.—Max Telbert, a train hand on the Georgia Pacific railway, lost two fingers from his right hand last night. Telbert was working in the yard shifting cars near the Simpson street crossing. In making a coupling his hand was caught between the two bumpers and so badly crushed that the surgeon, Dr. W. S. Elkin, found it necessary to ampurate the index finger and the one next to it. The thumb was badly mashed, too, but it may possibly be saved.

A Mitchox Opening.—The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of St. John's church will have, on next Sunday night, a mitchox opening and missionary entertainment combined. Dr. W. F. Glenn will deliver an appropriate address on this occasion. An interesting programme will be rendered by the members of the society. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Ministers To Meet.—The Ministers' Association will meet at the First M. E. church next Monlay, March 7th, at9:30 a. m. No cards of notice will be sent out to members.

Hotels and Boarding Houses.—Proprietors of hotels and boarding houses are requested to give notice immediately to G. B. Adair, 32½ West Alabama street, how many delegates to the Southern Baptist convention, which meets here on the 6th of May next, they will entertain and at what price per day.

In Memory of Dr. A. L. Barry.-At Moore Memorial church on next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock a special service will be held in the memory of the late Dr. A. L. Barry, who was for many fine as a ruling elder in the above named church. Friends of the deceased cordially invited to at-

Eden Lodge,—On last evening the order of Kinghts and Ladies of Honor oganized Eden lodge. The meeting was heal in the basement of St. Paul's Methodist church on Hunter street. The following officers were elected: Dr. F. M. Ickes, past protector; Mrs. M. Grace Willis, vice protector; J. K. Hines, protector; Mrs. E. E. Salter, financial secretary; F. Thacher, recording secretary; Rev. Mr. Bell, of St. Paul's Methodist church, chaplain; Miss Bailey, guide; Mrs. Spivey, guardian; Mr. Dennis, sentinel; Dr. W. C. Warren, physician: Dr. Ickes, deputy; Mrs. Salter and Messrs. Bell and Hines, trustees.

Broke the Record.-All of us have Broke the Record.—All of us have been taught in the days of our youth that a cat has nine lives. All of us have been told time and again that drop a cat from the top of the highest building and she'll light on her feet. And we've all been taught—well, a great many other things about these necessary adjuncts to all well-regulated families. Every day some of childhood's happy dreams are shattered, and now comes a sober, sensible Crew street tably to shatter all the above-mentioned ideals and to cast a whole family in mourning at the same time. By a misstep yesterday Dixie—that was his name—fell from a porch and broke his neck.

A Broken Leg.—Al Jett, the well-known saloonist on Alabama street, between Broad and Whiteball, is flat on his back with a badly fractured leg. Mr. Jett went into south Atlanta yesterday morning to visit his brother, and as he was descending the steps, fell. The fail was a hard one, and resulted in a compound fracture of his left leg just below the thigh. Surgical attention was quickly given, and the fracture was properly reduced, but Mr. Jett will probably be confined to his bed for several weeks, and then it will be crutches for many more months.

Lost His Diamond.—Mr. Frank Walker is now lamenting the loss of a handsome diamond scartpin. The pin has seen many scarfs come and go since Mr. Walker received it as an heirloom, and yesterday morning when he left his home its shine was as bright and sparkling as ever. About noon the pin was found absent from its usual resting place upon Mr. Walker's bosom and since that time he has been scarching closely for it, but without success. The pin has been valued at $450.

It Was a Sudden Death .- Mollie Christo pher, a negro wo man about thirty-seven years of ago, died very suddenly yesterday afternoon near her home on Pratt alley. The woman had been in had health for some time past and only a few days ago was permitted by her physician to leave the house. During the afternoon she attempted a walk up Mitchell street, into which Pratt alley runs but before going a degree workeld-proposed seven. runs, but before going a dozen yards dropped over on the sidewalk. Her death ensued almost immediately after those who ran to her rescue picked her up. The woman's death was presumed to be due to heart trouble.

A Church House Burned.—The old Sixth Baptist church was burned down early yesterday norning. The church was located far out on West Hunter street, and was used as a Methodist church by the negroes in that section.

Football Today.—This morning, at Piedmont park, youthful teams will initate the Auburn-Athens boys at football. The contestants are the Peachtree Blues and the Nemcan Athletic Club.

Adel, Ga., March 4.—(Special.)—Somebody was evidently bent on blowing up McQueen & Co.'s tram engine last Saturday. Manager Smith happened to be on, and saw the needle run from 100 pounds back to 60 and then jump to 140. A large lump of homemade soap was fund in the tender. Some people are not aware that soap will burst a boiler, but Mr. Smith says if he had had on a full head of steam an explosion would have been the result. It is not known who put it there, but it would go hard with the guilty party if it could be proven. Tried to Blow Up the Engine.

Died at Decatur. At 4:35 yesterday afternoon Mrs. Lucy Bacon Fulton died at her home in Decatur. Mrs. Fulton was a sister of Mr. S. W. Bacon, of this city. She will be buried at LaGrange on Sunday.

CRISP AND REED

GROWS ANGRY AT LAST. REED

And the House Laughs at His Dis fiture-What the Two Houses Have Been Doing-Other News.

Washington, March 4 .- (Special.)-Tom Reed has been attempting to annoy the democrats whenever an opportunity presented this session.

This afternoon he attempted to tangle Speaker Crisp, and get a recognition of his rulings of the last congress, but in the gallant Georgia speaker he met more than his match. Every time he attacked, the burly Maine man was repulsed, and the democrats applauded the speaker until they evere hoarse. Reed became angry, and grew red in the face, but he was convinced, after a few moments' Speaker Crisp, that this was not his inning and that the speaker knew the rules and knew how to enforce them.

The Scene Pictured.

The house had gotten into a sort of deadlock on a private bill. No quorum was present, and Mr. Kilgore, of Texas, moved recess till 8 o'clock, and, on a divi the vote stood 85 to 84. Mr. Enloe demanded tellers, and, they being refused, raised the point that no quorum had voted Speaker-The gentleman from Tennessee makes the point of no quorum on the mo-tion to take a recess. The chair will have

Mr. Reed, of Maine—The gentleman does not make the point of no quorum. He makes the point that no quorum has voted. Speaker—Under the rules of the house, and under the present administration of the house, gentlemen are not present unless they vote. (Applause from cratic side.)

Mr. Reed-That shows, Mr. Speaker, that there has been a new system adopted since the last congress.

The Speaker-That shows that the pres ent occupant of the chair will endeavor to enforce the rlues of the house as they now exist. (Applause on the democratic side.) Mr. Reed-Nevertheless, Mr. Speaker, the observation I made is entirely correct, namely, that the point that the gentle from Texas made was that no quorum had voted, while the speaker states that the point he made was "no quorum." My bservation, notwithstanding the retort of the chair, was entirely correct. The Speaker-Perhaps it is, but it is entirely out of order. (Democratic ap-

Mr. Reed-It is entirely correct, and, therefore, the chair has no right to make such remarks. The Speaker-The gentleman may correct, but, at the same time, he is out of rder. (Demands for regular order.) Tom Reed sat down, the democrats applauded and the matter ended. Reed was very angry, and will, perhaps, take every occasion from now on to attempt to annoy, the speaker, but the burly fellow will find himself repulsed every time he tries it.

The Tribute to Fitzhagh Lee. After Mr. Paddock had finished his speech on the pure food bill, the business of the senate was suspended in order that a fitting tribute should be paid to the memory of General W. Fitzhugh Lee, late representative from Vir-Eulogies on the life and character of General Lee were pronounced by Messrs. Bar our, Pasco, Stewart, Colquitt, Butler, Dolph and Daniel. At the close of Mr. Daniel's speech the usual resolutions of respect were adopted. The Democratic Platform of 1888. During the past month much has been said about the preparation of the democratic plat-form of 1888, but the full history of that platform has never yet appeared in print. Some time before the convention Mr. Cleveland, Mr. Gorman and other prominent demorats conferred about it. Mi pressed serious doubts about going before the country on a platform based upon his tariff message, and suggested that perhaps the platform of 1884, upon which he was elected, would be the best. Senator Gorman agreed with him, and it was decided the platform of 1884 should be the platform of 1888. It was drawn up by Manton Marble and given to Senator Gorman to present to the committee on resolutions of the convention.

Up to that time Senator Gorman had declined to go to the convention as a delegate, but at the personal solicitation of Mr. Cleveland he wired to his friends in Maryland to have him elected as a delegate to the St. Louis convention. He went to the depot here in Washngton with the platform drawn up by Manton Marble at the request of Mr. Cleveland in his pocket. At the depot a messenger from the president met him with a note asking that the platform be returned for a few slight amendments. It was returned and Mr. Cleveland changed it slightly and sent it out to St. Louis by a special messenger to Senator Gor-

When the committee on resolutions of the convention met. Senator Gorman presented the platform already drawn up with the statement that it had been approved by Mr. Clever nd, and that he wanted it adopted. Henry Watterson objected to it unless Mr. Cleveland should telegraph emphatically that it was the platform he wanted. Senator Gorman wired to Mr. Cleveland to wire him to that effect. At the same time belwired to Senator Carlisle, who was with him and Mr. Cleveland when they agreed upon it. A reply came from Mr. Carlisle that he did not remember exactly what had been agreed upon. Mr. Cleveland showed the white feather by not answering al all. Of course this embarrassed the Maryland senator, and he made no further fight. The Watterson platform was then adopted, and when Senator Gorman returned to Washington and called upon Mr. Cleveland for an ex lanation, his only reply was that he did not think it would have been dignified in him to interfere with the action of the convention. That's the true history of the platform of

AT PIEDMONT PARK, ST. PATRICK'S DAY,

The Challenge Sent and the Game Will Occur if They Agrees on the Rules. A Great Time Expected, St. Patrick's Day will be celebrated in Atlanta by such a rare game of football as was never witnessed in the south before. The jolly Irishmen and the sturdy Scotch are to struggle for the goal on that day celebrated by all good Irishmen.

The Scotchmen employed at the Lithonia quarry have sent a conditional challenge to

They will play the Irishmen if they will play according to the association rules. But this is what the Atlanta Irishmen do not want to do. They want to kick the ball after the fashion of "ye olden time," and not according to the rules governing modern col "If you want to see fun," said Mr. J. J.

Duffy, one of Atlanta's surest kickers, "just go to see a game of football according te old time rules. The college game don't compare with it. There's no science in the newfangled game, and not much fun."

Mr. Duffy explained that according to old time rules for playing football, the ball was rot tossed in the air to be kicked by the player who is lucky enough to get it, except Fien he catches it on the fly.

The old way is to make a general rush for the ball, and kick it while on the ground.

This is the way the Irishmen want to play and they insist that it is by far the best way.

Mr. Duffy wrote to the leader of the Scotch team last night, stating that the Irishmen were willing to play the Scotch, provided the game is governed by the old rules.

"I don't think they'll object to that," said Mr. Duffy, "and in all likelihood the game will occur between the Scotchmen and the

And now this fact—an interesting fact it is—is developed concerning this district. There is but one negro in it!

This fact was discovered by Tax Collector Stewart while at work making out the registration list for the county for 1892.

"Just one negro," said Mr. Stewart, "in the district, and it is no little district either. It votes over two hundred, and has the best farming land in the county. The republican party stands but little show in that district."

Peter Bankston is his name.

Peter Bankston is his name.
The only district in the county in which the negroes outnumber the whites is South Bend district. Here the Africans are largely in the majority.

Tax Collector Stewart said yesterday that this year's registration is 25 per cent more than the registration of last year.

Last year the registration was about fortyeight hundred. This year it will exceed six thousand.

This is accounted for by the fact that 1892 is what is called an election year.

And then the list of defaulters is longer than it ever was before.

Thousands of people have taken Hood's Sar-saparilla as a preventive of the grip with suc-cess. This medicine so purifies the blood and builds up the strength that the grip cannot overpower you.

A POSTMASTER

Writes to Secure Some Information About His Brother's Whereabouts.

Coroner Davis yesterday received a letter from Postmaster George C. Rankin, of bionmouth, Ill., asking about his brother, Robert H. Rankin.

The gentleman disappeared more than two weeks ago and nothing has ever been heard from him. On February 17th he left his home to go to the stock farm of W. P. Young, near Mount Plensaut, I., where he expected to purchase some fine steek.

He never reached his destination, and no well known in the northwest and is thirty-two years of age. Mr. Rankin had ex-emplary habits and his business affairs while it is a substance and his business affairs where it excellent shape, and no reason can be assigned for a voluntary absence.

Suspicion of four play arose at first, as the young man had a fine watch and $50 in his pocket when he left. Since then information has been received to the effect that Mr. Rankin left for the south, and it is believed that he did so during a temporally abstration of mind. The matter was turned over to the police

last night and a careful search will be made to locate him if he is in the vicinity

VETERAN FIREMEN.

They Spend a Day in Atlanta, and It's a Pleasant One.

"As we journey through life, let us live by the way." This little motto is what the New York veteran firemen have printed on their purple badges, and they are carrying it out to a letter. They took Atlanta yesterday by storm, and had a royal good time. Their natty uniforms made a bright show on the streets. Their red flannel shirts and gray trousers and coats make one of the most attractive uniforms ever seen in Atlanta. Yesterday morning they had a street pa rade with their machinery and Hall's Old Guard band of New York. There are seventy-five members of the association. In their parade they were accompanied by a number of Atlanta's old veteran firemen. They marched from the Markham to Decatur, thence on Marietta and Decatur to Broad, out Broad to Mitchell, thence to Whitehall, to Alabama, and down Ala-stationed near the Markham.

After the parade the Atlanta veterans chartered street cars and carriages and took them all over the city.

A BURNING CALABOOSE With a Drunken Negro in It in the City

A burning calaboose, with a drunken negro in it, came very near furnishing the world with a lively sensation last night.

The calaboose was the one used by West End to store her boisterous citizens in when they get tipsy. Last night an unknown negro was locked up in the calaboose charged with being drunk. He gave no name.

Several hours after his incarceration the calaboose was discovered to be on fire.

The marshal ran to the rescue of the negro, but before he reached him he was half suffocated from the smoke.

the smoke.

His escape was a narrow one.

The damage done to the prison was slight. A FAST RUN.

A Mile a Minute Made on the Brunswick and Western.

Brunswick, Ga., March 4.—(Special.)—The most remarkable running ever made in Georgia, or probably the south, was accomplished on the Brunswick and Western railroad today by engine No. 17, Engineer William Mahoney, pulling Superintendent G. W. Haines's special coach, with Conductor Welch in charge. The run was made from Albany to Brunswick, 117 miles, in 210 from Albany to Brunswick, 111 miles, in 210 minutes; including four stoppages, equaling a mile a minute for the full run. The run from Waycross to the Satilia river bridge, thirty miles where slowing up was necessary, was made in thirty minutes. Between Alapaha and Pearson stations the running was at the rate of fifty-five and fitty-eight seconds per mile.

The cause of this remarkable run was a telegram received by Superintendent Haines in transit, announcing that President Felton, of the East Tennessee, would like to meet him on business at 2 o'clock in Brunswick.

Married in a Store.

Acworth, Ga., March 4.--(Special.)—Quite a funny marriage took place in Acworth Tuesday, the contracting couple being a young Mr. Cicero Stephens to Miss Mary Ann Smith. They were married in the old vacant storehouse where Sorrell's beef market was kept. It is said that the bride is near thirty years old, while the groom is only about twenty summers. Rev. A. G. Johnson performed the ceremony.

THE TWO RECEIVERS

Are Fighting for the Possession of the A. & F. Before Judge Clarke.

NO DECISION HAS BEEN REACHED YET.

The Argument Will be Concluded Today and a Decision Will Be Rendered Within a Few Days.

The Atlanta and Florida receivership plum hangs ripe and luscious, ready to fall.

And Receiver Garrett and Receiver Plant are trying with all their might to bring it down with their long poles.

Which one will get it remains to be seen.

Just now there is absolutely nothing con-cerning the receivership fight upon which to base even a conjecture as to which one of the fighting receivers will get possession of the

The unique fight was continued before Judge Marshall J. Clarke yesterday morning, and is still in progress at white heat.

The hearing yesterday was upon a proceeding begun by Mr. Marion Erwin, representing ing begun by Mr. Marion Erwin, representing Receiver Plant.

The history of the case is familiar reading to Atlanta people. The appointment of two receivers—Captain Garreit by Judge Clarke and Mr. R. H. Plant by Judge Emory Speer, the former in Atlanta, the latter in Savannah—on the same day and near the same hour, is of such recent date as to be fresh in the minds of the public.

such recent date as to be fresh in the minds of the public.

After his appointment as receiver by Judge Clarke, Captain Garrett remained in charge in that capacity, as he had been as general superintendent of the line. Upon the application of Receiver Plant's attorneys for possession of the road, Captain Garrett refused to yield, claiming the right to hold it as the regularly appointed receiver by Judge Clarke.

A proceeding was then begun before Judge Speer in Macon to have Captain Garrett removed and Receiver Plant established as receiver of the Atlanta and Florida. After a hearing in this proceeding Judge Speer sustained the appointment of Mr. Plant and adjudged Receiver Garrett in contempt for fallure to give up possession of the road when demanded by Attorney A. C. King. An order for Receiver Garrett's arrest was issued by Judge Speer, but it has never been executed. Last Monday Mr. Plant's attorney, Mr. Marion Erwin, tendered a bill to Judge Clarke setting before him the facts, as he claimed, and asking that he remove Receiver Garrett to appear before him yesterday morning at 90 clock to show cause why he should not surrender the possession of the road to Receiver Plant.

In this way the hearing yesterday came

In this way the hearing yesterday came about.

Messrs. Payne & Tye, the attorneys for sented Receiver Plant.

Mr. Payne, of Payne & Tye, read Receiver
Garrett's answer to Receiver Plant's bill.

The bill recited the full history of the case, beginning with the application for a receiver for the Atlanta and Florida, filed before Judge Clarke by E. W. Marsh and others on January for the Atlanta and Fforida, filed before Judge Clarke by E. W. Marsh and others on January 9th. The long train of facts following this application, the numerous postponements and efforts to settle are detailed minutely in Receiver Garrett's answer. Receiver Garrett claims that Judge Clarke first had jurisdiction of the case, and had the matter under advisement long before Judge Speer was applied to papoint a receiver. Here the case seems to hang.

Does the fact that Judge Clarke first had jurisdiction of the case, although Receiver Plant was admittedly appointed first, take the jurisdiction from the hands of Judge Speer?

It's a question of law, and the attorneys interested have exhausted volumes of authority touching upon the point at issue.

Mr. Erwin, for Receiver Plant, and Mr. Payne, for Receiver Garrett, delivered strong arguments in support of their respective positions before Judge Clarke yesterday. These speeches occupied the entire day, and the speeches of the other attorneys in the case will occupy all of this morning, and may not be finished until this afternoon.

A decision in the case will hardly be rendered today.

After hearing the argument of both sides,

A decision in the case will hardly be rendered today.

After hearing the argument of both sides, Judge Clarke will probably take the case under advisement for a few days.

If he sustains Receiver Garrett the fight will not be ended by any means. Receiver Plant will wage the fight with as much vigor as aver. as ever.

If Receiver Garrett is not sustained, will the fight be ended? rnevs will say nothing on this point believing such an event outside the range of Time will tell.

ANOTHER AIR-LINE.

The Norfolk and Western Believed to Be Working for Florida Business.

Working for Florida Business.

Brunswick, Ga., March 4.—(Special.)— Brunswick will soon be on a trunk line from Philadelphia to Jacksonville. Information to this effect was received by The Constitution correspondent today. On February 25th the Norfolk and Western railroad secured a lease of the Roanoke and Southern railroad from Roanoke to Winston, N. C., and the following day began to operate trains upon it. This was the second step to securing the control of a direct trunk line from the north to the south, the first move having been made about thirty days ago when the same line secured control first move having been made about thirty days ago when the same line secured control of the Shenandoah Valley road, noted for its picturesqueness. Philadelphia capitalists of vast means control these roads, and with the roads they control they have but two short links to build to complete a direct and promising line between the north and south. The line will run from Winston to Columbia via Monroe. At this point connection will be made with the South Bound via Savannah to Jacksonville.

Jacksonville.
They will build almost an air-line via Brunswick, shortening the distance about sixty miles. It is claimed that every link in the line has been secured, and it only remains for the building to commence, partial surveys having been made. The route will be direct, an almost air-line from Philadelphia, Washington, Charlottesville, Lynchburg, Danville, Winston, Monroe, Columbia, Saannah and Brunswick.

SHOT AT A THIEF.

Mr. Jack Hoffman Discovers a Chicken Thief at Work, and Shoots.

Thomas J. Hoffman, the well-known horse dealer, who lives on Windsor street, near Crumley, had a lively and thrilling experience last night about 9 o'clock. Horses are one of Mr. Hoffman's hob-bies, and plenty of chickens are another. In his back yard he has coops large enough to accommodate a hundred chickens, and usuly the coops are full. usuly the coops are full.

Several nights ago, a chicken-loving creature trespassed upon Mr. Hoffman's yard, and the next morning several of his youngest and choicest birds were gone.

Since then he has been losing sleep to catch a glimpse of that nocturnal visitor, About 9 o'clock last night, a noise was heard in the yard, and, with pistol in hand, Mr. Hoffman went out. The roosters were crowing and the hens were cackling, and, amidst the music, the owner advanced towards the coops. Suddenly a big, burly negro sprang from between two of the chicken buildings and essayed to scale the fence. Mr. Hoffman pulled the trigger, and a loud report followed. Quickly there was a cry of pain, and, with it, the negro dropped. But, instantly, he went up the fence again, and, as Mr. Hoffman fired the second time, disappeared on the outside. A subsequent examination revealed blood stains on the fence, but a thorough investigation of the neighborhood failed to reveal a wounded chicken thief.

THE SIGMA NUS. An Alumni Chapter Organized Among the Atlanta Members. At a meeting, last night, of Atlanta igma Nus, it was decided to organize an alumni chapter of this well-known college Among those present last night at the neeting, to establish the chapter, were the meeting, to establish the chapter, were the folling alumni members who represent Kappa Delta Tau, and xi chapters: R. M. Walker, O. H. Hall, Ed Crusselle, W. J. Walker, O. H. Jeffcoat, W. P. Price, Jr., W. T. Asher, J. H. Hunt, J. C. West, J. A. Wilson and John F. Beck.

They were moved by a spirit of zeal for advancing the sentiment that always clings so tenderly to the memory of college associations, and went about their purpose with a hearty zest.

Mr. R. M. Walker was made president of the meeting, and Mr. J. H. Hunt was made secretary. The meeting was held over the Lowry bank.

The following officers were elected: J. G. Jeffcoat, commander; R. M. Walker, lieutenant commander; J. Hamilton Hunt, scribe; O. H. Hall, treasurer, and Ed Crusselle, doorkeeper.

They completed the organization of their alumni chapter, and will at once secure a place for meeting from time to time. They ask that all other alumni members in Atlanta join them in the work of keeping alive the interest of their chapter.

	the hands of a receiver by Judge
	t. The matter must have teen slyly done, because th	here was no positive information on the subject here until this afternoon. While many predictions have been made on this line lately, there has been but little said on the subject, and the publi has been but little said on the subject, and the public was taken by surprise when the news was received in a positive shape. One peculiar feature is that the name of the movant is not given, though the reason assigned is that the holding of 40,000 shares of stock by the Terminal is violative of the constitution, and that the property is about to be hampered with a debt it can never pay.

This all looks well on its face, but there are people uncharitable enough not to believe that the action is taken by a minority stockholder in his own interest. Some are bold in expressing the belief that the action is insignated by the Terminal people themselves for the purpose of wrecking the property and buying it in at their own price, and at the same time getting rid of an immense number of damage suits piled up against the company. I am told that the damage claims already filed aggregate mere than $1,000,000, and if the receivership should be made permanent and the property sold for the benefit of mortgage creditors, these claimants would be summearly disposed of.

Tomorrow will doubtless bring more positive infor-mation than the public is now possessed of, but if these uncertainties in railroad properties are not got-ten.rid of, it will soon reach a point where home cap-tial cannot be tempted into that channel.

Central stock has been quite depressed the last few days, and buyers have not been findable, though holders have been trying to hold up quotations. Georgia was strong today and should not be affected by the misfortunes of Central, but there will probably be a sympathetic feeling for a day or two which will cause proposing investors to hold off. Southwestern was 100 bid today, and many holders claim to be indifferent about what may be done with Central, but the receiverable is more than likely to depress the former, at least temporarily.

As a silver lining to the railroad cloud there has been an active demand for Savannah, Americus and Montgomery bonds the last few days, and the local supply has been entirely exhausted. Inquiries from other points have also been free, and the price has been marked up sharply in consequence. Many investors have been decilining to buy these bonds when offerings were free and prices low, and will now have to seramble to get them, paying more than they could have been bought at almost any time within the past three months.

Investment news is scarce, and the only thing other than the above to note is that there is a noticeable increase in the demand for state bonds. This is, the result of the near approach of April ist, when taxes are returned, and investors are looking for samething upon which taxes are not required to be paid.

THE NEW YORK MARKET.

The Day on the Floor of the New York Stock

Exchange. New York, March 4.—The stock market today was again very active, and after the first hour, decidedly strong, although one group of stocks monopolized the attention of the traders and the ilon's share of the improvement in prices. The general list, however, presented a firm front throughout the day, despite the early weakness in both New England and Richmond and West Point securities, in addition to several specialties. The opening of the market was made at irregular changes from final figures of last evening, but the advances were in the majority, and the market right at the start displayed a disposition to break away from the weakening influence of both New England and Richmond and West Point. Richmond and West Point ascertifies are still suffering from the uncertainty in regard to the reorganization, and hints are not wanting that the speculative interests are in a great measure responsible for the delay in announcing their plan. Stocks today, however, were comparatively strong, while bonds took a header and closed materially lower. Later in the day the feature of the day's operations was developed, and the Vanderbilt stocks quickly came to the front, with Lake Shore in the lead. Michigan Central following, and even Nickel Plate stocks couring in for a share in the rise. An upward movement in Lake Shore, however, overshadowed transactions in the rest of the list, and from 123 it shoused to 1354. Grangers also became more promiment in the late dealings, and St. Paul crossed 50 once more, while the connection of Northwestern with the vanderbilts accounted for the marked rise in that the close ans strong and confident on a large volume of business. J. S. Bache & Co.'s Stock Le

By Private Wire to A. P. Youngblood. NEW YORK, March 4.- The market opened steady, but Buropeans did very little there today. During the forence on the market was inclined to weakness on account of the heaviness in the Coalers and further gold shipments. New England was allowed to rest today, as a stock always does after a day of tremendous activity. More than the whole capital stock was traded in yesterday, and the people who are munipulating it wich to give the brokers a chance to make their deliveries and square up their accounts. The stock held fairly stoady, but did not rally with the rest of the market. Lake Shorewas the first shock to loom into prominence, and it closes with a gain of 8 per cent for the day. The buying at the lower prices was no doubt for the Vanderbill interest, but a good deal of short stock was covered at from 134 to 133, but still it was remarkable that at the advance so little stock came on the market. The Coalers were weak on account of the investigation, but the Grangers were next to the Vanderbilles in strength. The-St. Paul meating takes place on Tuciday. We think a 2/5 par cent dividend will be declared. In the last hour it began to look as if the Gould short interest was getting a little restless. They are heavily short of Rhode Island and but Europeans did very little there today. During the resiless. They are heavily short of Rhode Island and St. Paul, and we think they find it a hard time to cover up their big lines of shorts. Wellook for a further adup their big lines of shorts. We look for a further advance tomorrow, and think St. Paul will be the leader. In case Europe should buy stocks tomorrow, it will be well to watch Louisville and Nashville, as the short terest in this stock is very heavy.

NEW YORK, March 4 .- Our market opened quiet and steady at about last night's prices. Trading there-after was listless and small until noon. In fact, at times the market was such a limited one that it was difficult to execute orders. After the second call, however, it became apparent that the interior receipts would be larger than had been estimated, the accepted figures having been about 28,000 bales, while the actual result is a trifle over 30,000 bales. Under this and the report that New Orleans would receive 8,000 to 9,000 bales tomorrow, values gradually began to re-cede, and are from 465 points down throughout the list. It would seem as if at about 7.20 for August there was an unlimited quantity of cotton o buy; for, notwithstanding very considerable sales at this price, the demand was not satisfied, and up to the se this flours was hid. It is a remarkable close this figure was bid. It is a remarkable fact how values are sustained and almost impossible to explain where the cotton goes to. The absorption is steady and persistent. It is true that no one can argue for any immediate improvement, for most people who are buying the article simply calculate upon the future and base their ideas upon the present low prices as an encouragement to hold, in which course we believe

Hubbard, Price & Co.'s Circular.

REW YORK, March 4.—An advance of 1-64d in Liverpool, and a continued good spot demand, was this morning's report. It was, however, without effect on our market, which, up to noon, had been exceedingly duil at about last night's prices. Them, a slight decline developed as the result of slightly heavier receipts at the ports today, and the prodiction of larger receipts at New Orleans tomorrow. By 1 o'clock prices were 3 points below last evening. Late cables from Liverpool advise a slightly easier feeling there after the close, in consequence of cables from this side, predicting heavier receipts next week. It is noteworthy that this is the first week in some time in which the American stock of cotton in Liverpool has falled to show an increase. A letter reaching us this morning, under date of February 6th, says: "We fully maintain what we have previously written about the short yield. The total production of cotton of India growths will be at least 50,000 bales under last year." After 1 o clock the market became a little more active, losing a point or two more, and closing finally steady about 3 points under last evening's figures.

Lamson Bros. & Co.'s Grain Letter. By Private Wire to A. P. Youngblood.

CHICAGO, March 4 .- The action of the wheat me CHICAGO, March 4.—The action of the wheat market today was an enigma which we were unable to solve. The market opened about 1/20 higher than yeaterday's close on the strong cables, liberal export buying orders and reports of damage to the French crop. There was some weakness shortly after the opening, but railed again on liberal buying by local shorts, led by alarge desier. About the time the market was the highest, with 91's bid, New York reported large export buying Charapters were liberal, over helf a million buying. Clearances were liberal—over half a millio wheat and flour and 900,000 corn, and the closing cable wheat and nour and 90,000 corn, and the closing cables all came strong, and, in most cases, higher. We thought that this would custain prices, and in all probability cause a higher close, but the contrary was the result. New York sold quite freely, and a large local dealer gave instructions to his brokers to sell them all they wanted above 91. They did not seem to want very much, however, for the market im broke to about yesterday's closing prices and remaine there till the close of the session. The bear feature i the continued large receipts in the northwest and the favorable conditions for the growing erop. Local hold-ers are very much discouraged. STATEHOUSE NEWS.

The School Children Working for the World's Fair.

AN OLD SOLDIER'S PENSION HELD UP.

He Lost His Arm at Sharpsburg, but Plays in Bad Luck Handling Pensions. The Supreme Court's Work.

The school children of the state have gone to work in dead earnest to raise their share of the money necessary to have Georgia represented at the world's fair.

Some time ago The Constitution outlined the plan which was decided upon as a good means of raising a part of the fund. It was to get the school children all over the state to to get the school children all over the state to pass around among themselves subscription lists each contributing a nickel or a dime, or whatever amount they were able to give.

As an incentive to work up an interest among the children to carry out this work Governor Northen promised that each subscription list with the names of these children contributing to the fund should be filed away among the archives of the state and kept for future generations to notice as an avidence for future generations to notice as an evidence of pride and loyalty among the Georgians even before they get out of school.

The children of Albany are the first to respond to this scheme. The boys and girls of the Albany institute have been at work canvassing the school children there, and as a restrement scaling check for $21. mit send in a check for $11.

The following is the letter from County School Commissioner Davis enclosing the theck:

Albany, Ga., March 2, 1892.—Hon S. D. Brad-yell, Atlanta, Ga. Dear Sir: Inclosed plasse ind check for $11, the response of the children in intendance upon the Albany academy, Professor L. I. Fitzpatrick, principal, to the call of our hon-red governor for a contribution from the school ored governor for a contribution from the school children of the state, to a fund for a Georgia exhibit at the world's fair.

I trust that the modest example of the children of Albany will stimulate the zeal of every community in the state. Yours respectfully, County School Commissioner.

Georgia to the world's fair recently, was in Atianta yesterday.

Speaking of the great agricultural exhibit that he intends to get up for Georgia he said he had no doubts at ali of the success of the undertaking since Georgia is one of the greatest agricultural states in the union.

"If think it is a matter of a certainty that Georgia will have an exhibit at the world's fair," he declared, "for the interest in the movement is increasing every day. It is not only feasible, but we can have one of the greatest displays of all the states, and we will do it, too.

do it, too.

"We must have a building of our own, and from the present prospects there seems to be no doubt on that score. With our Georgia wood, granite and marble it cannot be doubted that we can have as pretty a building as any of the other states."

Colonel Gorman is very much in earnest about this work, and seems confident that it is not going to fail. He says Georgia can show up as attractively as any state in the American union, and he is not ready yet to believe that loyal and progressive Georgians are going to allow this great opportunity to escape them. He says Mrs. Felton must be encouraged in her work of organizing the affect of the contract her work of organizing the effort to get up the

The Old Soldiers. About seven hundred and ten pensions have been paid up to date, which means that about forty-three thousand dollars has been paid out forty-three thousand dollars has been paid out to the old men who wore the gray.

A very interesting and pitiable case came up yesterday before the governor and Colonel Tip Harrison in the way of a pension claim.

Mr. James R. Thompson, of this county, went to the pension office with a claim for a pension of $100. He lost one of his arms at the battle of Sharpsburg, in Maryland, and has a good right to his pension. He is said to have been a most valiant soldier and never knew what fear was however thick the bullets came. Several weeks ago Mr. Thompson drew a widow's pension of $100 for Mrs. Fannie Guice, whose husband was a brother-in-law to Mr. Thompson. He claims to have gone to a good deal of trouble getting up statistics as to when and how Mr. Guice was killed so that he could get the pension for Mrs. Guice, who constituted him as her representative.

But, Mrs. Guice died just a few weeks before the pension was paid, and the law says no pension shall be paid to a widow's credit after death.

Mr. Thompson did not say the woman was dead when he drew her pension, but Colonel Tip Harrison found it out later and determined not to let Mr. Thompson have his own pension when the time company.

when the time came.

Mr. Thompson presented his claim yesterday for his own pension. It amounted to $100 exactly, the amount of the widow's pension he had drawn.

Colonel Harrison refused payment on the ground that Mr. Thompson had drawn the widow's pension illegally and the state had to take his own pension to get even.

Mr. Thompson stoutly kicked against any such procedure. He claims that he turned over the widow's pension to her daughter, and did not know that he had drawn a pension illegally. He says that he doesn't intend to be deprived of his pension in any such fashion. He says the widow's pension, according to the act of the legislature, had been due, anyhow, nearly a year before he got it, the payment having been delayed because there was no money in the treasury. But, he says, however that may be, he will have his money if he has to take the matter before the next Georgia legislature.

Georgia legislature.
Surely, Mr. Thompson has been playing in had luck to say the least of it. The case is an had luck to say the least of it. Interesting one, however, it may be decided.

The Supreme Court.

The supreme court will convene again this morning for the purpose of trying one case that has been left untried in the tedious routine of the long session.

The past term has been a most trying one for the judges of the court, and they are all worn out and tired of it.

They will begin Monday morning to consult with reference to rendering decisions in several very important cases.

DAN HALL IS RELEASED ON BOND.

A Boarding House Closed-Meeting of the Grand Jury for the Spring Term Next Monday.

The numerous boarders at the American house were faced with closed doors, and closed shutters over the windows, when they went to their supper last night. That usually hospitable hostelry was closed up and wore a deserted appearance.

Deputy Sheriff Will Green carried the keys to the boarding place.

Last week Mr. Howell C. Erwin sued out a distress warrant, as trustee for his mother, against Mrs. America B. Hammett, the proprietor of the American house.

The American house is a large hearding. The American house is a large boarding ouse at No. 71 Marietta street.

The contents of the hotel, consisting of any number of chairs, dressers, washstands, sofas, bureaus, wardrobes, carpets, and other house furnishings, were levied on by Deputy Sheriff Green. Upon the consent of the plaintiff, Mrs. Hammett was allowed to remain in possession of the goods until yesterday. Yesterday afternoon Mr. Green took charge of the house furnishings and closed the doors.

He still retains the keys, and the doors of the American house closed.

THOSE SCHEDULES

Cause Much Discussion Among the

Patrons of the Car Lines. THE EFFECT OF THE GREAT CHANGES.

What the People Say About It-Mr. Hurt Says He'll Make Them All Right If He Is Only Given Time.

The new street car schedules are creating more dissatisfaction than anything the Consolidated company has done.

In spite of all the noise that has been made in some quarters about the company's management, the majority of the people have heretofore been disposed to be patient and give it plenty of time to complete construction and settle down to business; but when it develops that the settling process is giving longer schedules than those in operation before the consolidation, the patience is giving out and the people in some parts of the city, where the consolidation, the patience is giving out and the people in some parts of the city, where the time is longest, are much stirred up.

Two things seem to have created the dissatis action—the removal of loops from the electric cars so as to reduce speed, and the removal of cars.

So much has been said about the rapid running of cars, and so much has been made of the few accidents resulting that the Consolidated company has gone to the other extreme. There are about fifty electric cars on the consolidated lines, and in nearly all of them the "loop" has been removed so as to change the electric current in a way that reduces the speed about one-third. This was done, it is said, to keep the motormen from running too fast. It seems to be having the desired effect, for persons who ride on the Whitehall street cars now say that it takes twenty-five minutes for West End electric cars to come the same distance the nules made in half an hour. The trip has formerly been made in fifteen minutes, and the extra time is attributed to the removal of the loops. attributed to the removal of the loops.

Some of the Schedules. Some of the Schedules.

On the Jackson and Walker street line from Ponce de Leon avenue to West End, where five cars had been running, the two which ran to Nelson street bridge were taken off, leaving three to cover the long route of four miles. This leaves a thirty-minute schedule where there had been one of fitteen minutes.

The Jackson street end of this line is the track of the old Gate City line, which ran from Ponce de Leon springs over Jackson, Wheat and Pryor streets to the Kimball. On that old line the horse cars made a fifteen-

Wheat and Pryor streets to the Kimball. On that old line the horse cars made a fifteen-minute schedule each way. When electric cars were put on they ran out Edgewood avenue and returned over Jackson, giving a fiteen-minute schedule only one way. The people on Jackson street grumbled a little, but were disposed to put up with some inconvenience rather than fight a company which was spending so much money and laying so much track. Now, however, the one-way schedule has been reduced money and laying so much track. Now, however, the one-way schedule has been reduced to thirty minutes, and this is the last straw on the camel's back. The people on Jackson street are loud in their expressions of dissatisfaction, and if the schedule is not soon improved they will be heard from in an effective manner.

There is a good deal of dissatisfaction also on Highland avenue and the Boulevard. The old Fulton County electric line ran a fifteenminute schedule, and ranitse as to take in the minute schedule, and ranitso as to take in the Boulevard. The schedule of the Consolidated company, since the cars were made to run out the Boulevard and back on Jackson street, has not suited the Boulevard people. They had to walk to Jackson, or else had to ride down to Ponce de Leon avenue and return on Jackson to town. The latter course was the only one in bad weather. Notwithstanding this fact, the conductors were instructed to collect fare from those taking the cars on the Boulevard, and collect from them again when the cars turned into Jackson at Ponce de Leon avenue and started back to the city. Thus the people on the Boulevard were forced to walk a long block in bad weather or pay double fare. They complained a good deal about this, but there was a regular insurrection when the half-hour schedule was put on. A: half-hour schedule and 10 cents fare was more than they could stand.

How the People Talk. Boulevard. The schedule of the Consolidated

How the People Talk.

How the People Talk.

The new schedules have been freely discussed on the cars and the very general remark is that the position of the Consolidated company is untenable so long as it continues to keep up a fifteen-minute schedule to Inman Park. A frequent remark is that the people do not object to Mr. Hurt's making a trunk line of Edgewood avenue, for that appears to be as good as any other, but they do cheet the statement of t pears to be as good as any other, but they do object to his discriminating against the north-eastern part of the city in favor of Inman Park in the matter of schedules. The patrons of the Houston and Jackson street lines cannot understand why a strong consolidated company should not be able to give as good schedules as the isolated lines which it bought up, especially when the cars run over the same tracks upon the same identical rails.

A matter which has escaped general cially when the cars run over the same tracks upon the same identical rails.

A matter which has escaped general attention, and perhaps even the attention of the street car management, is that requiring two cars to make three round trips to Edgewood in an hour has resulted in some very rapid if not dangerous running. The high trestle over the Richmond and Danville railroad is approached by long declivities, and as the cars cannot run as fast as formerly up grade and on a level, they have to go pretty fast down hill in order to make the schedule. Professor C. M. Neel, who was riding on an Edgewood car one day this week, says that the speed at the trestle was so high that he felt alarmed and was almost inclined to get off the car.

Some disappointment has resulted from the removal of the cars that ran from Courtland and Linden avenues across to Whitehall. They had not been on long, but were a great convenience to north side ladies of the north side came across to do their shopping, and this convenient schedule is missed. It is remembered that Mr. Hurt stated in an interview some time ago that he intended to make every car run across town, and it was hoped that there would be no backward step in this narcar run across town, and it was hoped that there would be no backward step in this par-

What Will Be Done.

The people seem to think that the Consolidated company is taking the back track. The idea advanced by the company was that consolidation would make a better service practicable, and as this seemed a reasonable proposition, the people and the city accepted it in good faith when the liberal franchises were granted last year. The people now begin to ask who made the mistake, and whether the possibility of a better service vanighed when possibility of a better service vanished when possibility of a better service vanished when consolidation came.

The electric committee of the city council has already been in session on the schedules, and Mr. Joel Hurt, president of the Consolidated company, was present. It is stated by gentlemen who were present that Mr. Hurt assured the committee that he would satisfy the people in the matter of schedules, and asked to be given time to do so.

Great Keys

Such as St. Peter carried in pictures, and the rest of us carried in discomfort, went suddenly out of use on the introduction of the famous "YALE" locks. Then some happy people jumped to the conclusion that any small key meant a "YALE" lock. Not so. It's easy to make a worthless lock with a little key, and it takes less metal. Your protection lies in one word. See that "YALE" is stamped on every Key. If that is there, security is there also. Sold wherever locks sell.

inspires confidence. They are absolutely pure and agreeable to the most sensitive. They afford immediate relief in the most distressing of itching and burning eczemas, and other itching, scaly, and crusted skin and scalp diseases. They speedily cure humors of the blood and skin, with loss of hair, whether simple, scrofulous, hereditary, or ulcerative, when the best physicians and all other remedies fail. In a word, they are the greatest skin cures, blood purifiers, and humor remedies of modern times, and may be used in the treatment of every humor and disease, from eczema to scrofula, from infancy to age.

BT "How to Cure Blood and Skin Humors," 64 pages, 300 Diseases, 30 Illustrations, and 200 Testimonials. Mailed free to any address. A book of priceless value.

Cuttcura Remodels are soid throughout the world. Price, Cuttcura, 50c.; Cuttcura Soar, 55c.; Cuttcura Resolvent, $1. Prepared by Potter Drug & Chemical Corporation, Boston.

Red, Rough, and Oily Skin, plmples, blotches, blackheads, simple humors and blemishes of infants and children are prevented and cured by that greatest of all Skin Purifiers and Beautifiers, the celebrated Cutloura Soap. Incomparably superior to all other skin and complexion soaps, while rivalling in delicacy and surpassing in purity the most expensive of toilet and nursery soaps.

GENTLEMEN: It is about time for you to think some of Spring Clothing, for it won't be long until you have to discard that heavy Winter Suit and Overcoat for something lighter and more seasonable. It's a little early, but there is a great advantage in making your selections while our stock is complete and not picked over. Tans and grays in soft goods will be the season's two colors for suitings. Small, broken checks, homespuns in very swell patterns, and neat mixtures in both soft and hard goods are now the fad. Our stock abounds in a great variety of these and at prices that will please you. In plain worsteds we show an immense assortment, and if it is a plain suit you want, come to us. We are headquarters. You will find our prices very moderate and within your reach. Whether you are ready to place an order or not, we would be pleased to have you call and look through for future reference. Come

SURRY OF EAGLES NEST

By John Esten Cooke. By John Esten Cooke.

This celebrated book has been out of print up to three years ago, and what few copies could be obtained sold readily for $10 and $15 per copy and even more, so great was the anxiety of the public to possess a copy of this great novel. It was then republished as a subscription book and sold at $2 per copy until an immense edition was exhausted.

sold at $2 per copy until au infine set of the exhausted.

The publishers then determined to print a paper edition, knowing that there could be several hundred thousand copies more sold at this popular price that in the $2 edition. It has been placed at the remarkably low price of 50 cents, or will be sent for 55 cents postpaid to any address. For sale by John M. Miller, opera house block, Marietta street, Atlanta, Ga.

OFFICE OF FULTON COUNTY COMMISSIONers of Roads and Revenues, March 4th, 1892.—A petition having been filed praying for the opening of a public road between Fulton and De Kalb counties from the old turnpike road north to the Williams's Mill road, and it appearing that the road commissioners to whom the same was referred have reported recommending the opening of said road, this is, therefore, to give notice to all concerned that if no good cause be shown to the contrary said road will be finally granted on the first Wednesday in April, 1892.

Nearly one hundred styles of new Suitings and Trouserings are ready in the Merchant Tailoring Department. Not simply patches on cards-big, full pieces. The nattiest weaves of Europe and America are among them. Skillful fitters and cutters are behind them. The most careful man, the most particular man, can have the nobbiest sort of a Spring Suit on short notice---and a satisfactory Suit, too.

The fabrics that are now ready to be shown are all new. You cannot find an old familiar in all the lot. No, not one. That is an element of progress in our Tailoring business. No grass nor weeds growing there. Newness, freshness, novelty, alertness. "Face to the front" and "Forward, double quick" are the orders.

The materials are exclusive almost entirely. Three-fourths of all we show are to be found only here. The charm of elegant economy suffuses the stock for this Spring.

100 That imaginary line with Winter and Spring on either side is a No-Man's Land anyhow. We are as warranted in advertising Winter Overcoats and Suits as if winter were still in its depths. Who knows but there's several weeks' wear yet for you this winter in one of these Suits or Overcoats at $9.90, reduced from $12.50, $15, $17.50 and $18.
